HUSBAND-WIFE MUSICAL TEAM TAKES NEW JOBS

Melville Tully, voice teacher and director of the South Bay Light Opera Assn., and Mrs. Tully recently assumed the position of director of music and organist, respectively, at St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, Redondo Beach.

Tully comes to St. Andrew's with an extensive background of music and church experience. His grandfather was one of the first Presbyterian ministers to come from Canada to the United States. When he saw that his grandson's interest lay in music rather than the ministry, he exerted his influence to see that he became a church musician.

Boy Alto
Tully, who has a baritone voice, began singing as a boy alto. He has done light opera and concert solo work in Los Angeles, San Francisco and other California cities.

He has studied with many noted teachers, such as Winifred McGee, Laurence Strauss, May Taylor Elliott, Rudolphine Radil, Albert Ruff, Alexander Kisselburgh, and Louis Graevre.

Tully studied conducting under James Sample, director of the Portland Symphony. He also studied under Fred Waring, Franz Sieninger, Leo Sowerby, Julius Herford, Clarence Dickinson, and Paul Calloway.

Before the war, Mr. and Mrs. Tully were at the First Methodist Church of Inglewood for eight years.

Australian Service
During the war, Tully was stationed in Brisbane, Australia, where he served as choir director of the First Presbyterian Church. The church invited him to return after the war and make the connection permanent.

After the war, however, Mr. and Mrs. Tully came to the South Bay as director and organist, respectively, for St. Cross Episcopal Church of Hermosa Beach, where they remained for 10 years.

Opera Director
He is the director and the accompanist for the South Bay Light Opera Assn. They have studios in the South Bay and in Los Angeles for voice, organ, and piano.

Tully is a member of the Choral Conductors Guild and other music organizations. Mrs.

Lutheran Church of Good Shepherd Organized Here

Plans for the establishment of a new congregation of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in west Torrance have been announced, with the arrival in the city of the Rev. Gerald W. Garlid, who will serve as the pastor.

This new congregation, which will be known as the Lutheran Church of the Good Shepherd, is one of 39 new churches authorized during 1956 under the home mission program of the Evangelical Lutheran Church, a member synod of the National Lutheran Council, with headquarters in Minneapolis.

With the initial day of Sunday School and worship scheduled for Sunday, March 24, arrangements are being made for a temporary place of worship for the new congregation.

Tully is an accomplished accompanist, pianist, and teacher. She is a member of the Organists Guild and of PEO Woman's Society.

Mr. and Mrs. Tully have two fine boys who have an excellent chance of becoming musicians.

which will serve west Torrance and Redondo Beach.

Site Sought
A site for the church structure will be purchased in the near future, with the construction of the first unit to follow. Funds for the purchase of the site and the erection of the church have been made available by the Department of Home Missions of the ELC.

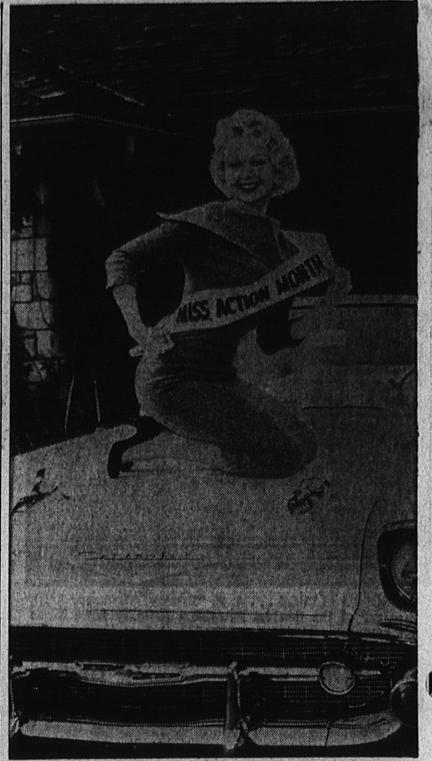

In preparation for the establishment of the Lutheran Church of the Good Shepherd a house-to-house survey and visitation program are now being conducted in the area which the new congregation is to serve. This service is being done by parish workers provided under the ELC Home Mission program.

The Lutheran Church of the Good Shepherd is the third congregation of the Evangelical Lutheran Church to be established in this immediate area. Other member congregations are the Lutheran Church of the Resurrection on Palms Verdes Blvd. and Christ the King Lutheran Church in north Torrance.

Wisconsin Service
Rev. Garlid came to Torrance from Chippewa Falls, Wis., where he served as pastor of Central Lutheran Church, a congregation of more than 1300, for the last six years. Earlier he served parishes in Minnesota at Heron Lake, Ellendale, and Appleton.

A native of Cooperstown, N. D., he is a graduate of North Dakota State College, Fargo, and Luther Theological Seminary, St. Paul, Minn. He was called to his present service by the home mission committee of the California District of the ELC. District president is Dr. Gayland Falde, Los Angeles.

A parsonage for the Lutheran Church of the Good Shepherd has been purchased at 22924 Carlow Rd., where Mr. and Mrs. Garlid are residing, together with their two sons, Karl, age 12 and Peter, age 7.

Rev. Kuester Will Preach On Marriage

Rev. H. Earl Kuester, pastor of Calvary Baptist Church, 2818 Manhattan Beach Blvd., Gardena, will preach at morning duplicate services, 8:30 and 11 a.m., and at the evening service.

His topic for the evening is in the "You Asked For It" series: "Mis-mated Marriages" which will deal with inter-faith marriages and non-Christian marriages. The ordinance of baptism will be observed at the evening service.

On Monday evening the Order of Andrew will again meet to carry on the calling campaign of the church. Organized by the pastor, this group of lay folk are pledged to give two hours a month, or to take two to four assignments, for calls on folk who are not members of Calvary or any other community church.

A short time of fellowship and inspiration at the church precedes the calling and the callers' return to the church at 9 for coffee.
